The Interplay of Business, Law, and Diplomacy

Q1. Share a real-life case highlighting the intricate interplay of Law, Business, and Diplomacy, with a primary focus on U.S.-Republic of Korea (ROK) relations, though examples from other international contexts are equally encouraged. Describe the causal link between a series of events within the case and thoroughly analyze its implications critically. For instance, consider how the United States' enactment of the Industrial Resilience Accelerator (IRA) legislation (Law) negatively affected Korean companies (Business) and subsequently triggered diplomatic uncertainties (Diplomacy). Examine the political, economic, and social consequences stemming from these events. Criticize a specific problematic aspect, such as the lack of prior communication with the ally nation, which led to ROK doubting US' intentions. Personal opinions and profound analysis are strongly encouraged! (Word count: 500-1000 in English/ 1500-2500 장)
